Introductions.

Update: East Bay Conversation Project

Joseph Greaves presented a slide presentation on the East Bay Conversation Project (EBCP) including:

- What is EBCP
- What's new with EBCP
- POLST E-Registry Pilot Project
- Challenges and Lessons Learned

Please see attached presentation for more information.

Update: National Healthcare Decisions Day Workshops-Event

- Outreach – Brochures have been distributed to libraries in San Francisco and the web page is up and hosted by Human Services Agency (HSA).
- Chinese American Coalition for Compassionate Care (CACCC) will have a training on April 10, 2019 from 9:00 am – 11:00 am for PREPARE and 9:00 am – 1:00 pm for the Heart to Heart Café. All partner agencies have signed up. Self-Help for the Elderly is sending 16 people for the training.
- Rachel shared the workshop schedule for City-Wide Advanced Care Planning. Spanish volunteers are still needed.

Update: Partnership with Re: Imagine

- Surveys will be sent out to report back to funders and leverage more funding.
- Rebecca and Christine are working on an evaluation.

Update: Strategic Planning Next Steps

- Key people were interviewed across San Francisco who have been involved in the workgroup and some outside the workgroup.
- A few additional organizations were also researched to learn best practices.
- Loren will write up a more strategic plan and budget, and start a fundraising plan.

- Three year plan to launch a public facing campaign specifically focused on Advanced Care Planning.
- Look at a viable practical strategy for clinician community.

Announcements: There have been 15 facilitators signed up for the workshop. Loren is working with HSA, the library and Blue Shield California and reaching out to the media. They will be targeting the English speaking event at the Library and the event at the Jackie Chan Center targeting Cantonese and Spanish speaking event at the Mission Neighborhood Center. Coverage will include photographs. English and Spanish facilitators will be at the Bayview area.
